

Mission Statement

The mission of the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators is to further effective beverage alcohol policy and regulation by educating its members about beverage alcohol policies and regulation within our communities, states and nation. To that end, the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators provides a forum for its members to openly communicate and learn about the creation and maintenance of successful systems of beverage alcohol regulation in service of the public interest.