NCSLA Announces 2014 Regional Conferences

NCSLA President Anne Hutchison and the Executive Committee are pleased to announce the dates and locations of the NCSLA 2014 Regional conferences this fall.

The Central/Western regional conference will be held at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Des Moines, Iowa from October 7-10th. Administrator Stephen Larson and the Iowa Alcoholic Beverages Division are serving as conference host and busy planning a memorable event that you won't want to miss. "Iowa is thrilled to have the opportunity to host the 2014 Central/Western regional conference in Des Moines. The conference is an excellent opportunity for regulators, industry representatives and service providers to discuss important developments in the regulation of alcohol," said Stephen Larson, administrator of the Iowa Alcoholic Beverages Division.

Later in October the Northern/Southern regional conference will be held in Palm Harbor, Florida (near Tampa) at the Innisbrook Resort. The dates are October 26-29th so mark your calendar and plan to attend. The Florida Division of Alcoholic Beverages & Tobacco and Director Allen Douglas are hosting this regional conference and are preparing an unforgettable event. "The NCSLA organizes conferences that provide an opportunity to share great ideas that shape the beverage industry, and this year we're pleased Florida is hosting the conference and we look forward to attending the conference with members from other states in Florida," said Allen Douglas, director of the Florida Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco.

"NCSLA members will enjoy visiting these unique destinations later this year and I very much appreciate the contributions and enthusiasm of both the Iowa and Florida state agencies for hosting our 2014 regional meetings. NCSLA's Executive Committee and membership highly value such ongoing dedication and support of NCSLA," stated Anne Hutchison, NCSLA president.

More details on conference logistics and registration will be forthcoming so visit the NCSLA website at www.ncsla.org for updates. Please save the dates and make plans to join us!

About National Conference of State Liquor Administrators, Incorporated:

A national organization of state alcohol beverage regulators, founded June 19, 1934, in Chicago, Illinois, whose purposes are to promote the enactment of the most effective and equitable types of state alcoholic beverage control laws; devise and promote the use of methods which provide the best enforcement of the particular alcoholic beverage control laws in each state; work for the adoption of uniform laws insofar they may be practicable; promote harmony with the federal government in its administration of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act; and strive for harmony in the administration of the alcoholic beverage control laws among the several states.
